

The Empty Bowl Project at Crocker Farm School

The 5th grade students at Crocker Farm School are participating in a community service learning program, The Empty Bowl Project. The Empty Bowl Project is an international arts project focused on fighting hunger and food insecurity in our local communities.

Art teacher Diane Travis is heading up the interdisciplinary project with the Crocker Farm 5th grade. Students are making clay bowls in art, documenting the project with our technology teacher, Liz Breen and our music teacher Eleanor Lincoln along with our P.E. teacher, Dustin James are putting together a talent show as entertainment during our Empty Bowl Dinner.

We will hold The CF Empty Bowl Fundraising Dinner on May 17th at 6:00 at Crocker Farm School. A simple meal of soup, bread and dessert will be served. Guests who come to the dinner will take home a beautiful handmade bowl as a reminder that there are always empty bowls in our communities. Tickets to the dinner will cost $15.00 per person and all our proceeds will be donated to the Amherst Survival Center.
