Munson Memorial Library History

The Munson Memorial Library, a branch of the Jones Library, occupies one wing of the Munson Memorial Building.

The Building was dedicated in 1930 as a memorial to Mr. Parnell Munson, fulfilling a bequest made to the Town by his wife Mrs. Mary Munson.

Located on land donated to the Town by Mr. William H. Atkins, the Building contains meeting rooms, the Library, and a large community hall.

For information about reserving the Munson's meeting rooms, contact Amherst Leisure Services.

Parking is available in front of the building and behind the South Amherst Congregational Church.
